

Edelweiss

Edelweiss, Edelweiss, (G, D, G, C)
Every morning you greet me. (G, Em, C, D)
Small and white, clean and bright, (G, D, G, C)
You look happy to meet me. (G, D7, G)

Blossom of snow may you bloom and grow, (D, G)
Bloom and grow forever! (C, A, D)

Edelweiss, Edelweiss, (G, D, G, C)
Bless my homeland forever. (G, D, G)

“Edelweiss” was written in 1959 by Rodgers and Hammerstein for their Broadway musical, “The Sound of Music.” The edelweiss is a small, white Alpine flower, and is a popular flower in Austria. This was the last song ever written by the famous team of Rodgers and Hammerstein.
