INTRODUCTION

The Chorus songbook is arranged by sections, each with a different theme. New songs and old songs are mixed alphabetically within sections and, for ease in making up performance-specific notebooks, only one song is placed on each page.

New girls should begin with the Basic Songs; these form the core of our Chorus repertoire and could be called on at any time in a performance. They should be learned by heart, and many have motions we’ll work on at rehearsals. We’ll work on these at our first two October rehearsals.

Other songs will be rehearsed as needed for performances as they are scheduled. At our November overnight rehearsal, we’ll concentrate on holiday songs, in preparation for our several holiday performances.

Trefoil singers are our soloists. All girls are welcome in Chorus without audition, but Trefoil singers must pass an audition for vocal pitch and volume. Auditions are held before or after regular rehearsals and should be arranged ahead of time with the director. At most of our rehearsals at Peterson, Trefoil singers will rehearse part of the time separately, learning the solo parts, descants, and longer verses of many of our songs. This should challenge our more experienced singers and allow us to expand our repertoire without over-taxing the newer girls who are still learning the basic repertoire.

Included with each song is a blurb in blue, meant to be read as an introduction if appropriate when the song is performed.

Also included with all songs meant to be sung with accompaniment are the chords, in green, at the end of each line (so as not to confuse our younger readers). From that, we know the key the chorus is accustomed to singing the song in, and can accompany the chorus with guitar, banjo, piano, accordion, or whatever instrument we desire. Note that, in many cases, the chords have been derived from a Girl Scout songbook, but, in many other cases, are of my own derivation.

Star Spangled Banner

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
(F, Dm, G7, C)
(F, C, F)
(F, Dm, G7, C)
(F, C, F)

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

“Taps” was originally written for the bugle by General Daniel Butterfield during the Civil War, and was first played in 1862. Throughout the world, Girl Scouts use the words to its second verse as a closing.
This Land is Your Land

Chorus:
This land is your land, this land is my land
From California to the New York Island
From the Redwood Forest to the Gulf Stream waters
This land was made for you and me.

1. As I went walking that ribbon of highway
   I saw above me that endless skyway
   I saw below me that golden valley
   This land was made for you and me.

2. I roamed and I rambled and I followed my footsteps
   To the sparkling sands of her diamond deserts
   While All around me a voice was sounding
   Saying this land was made for you and me.

3. The sun came shining, and I was strolling
   And the wheat fields waving and the dust clouds rolling
   As the fog was lifting, A voice was chanting,
   This land was made for you and me.

Entire group does the Chorus, while Trefoils sing the verses

“This Land is Your Land” was written in 1956 by Woody Guthrie and has been a favorite ever since in the world of folk music. For our arrangement, the verses are sung by our Trefoil Singers. Please join in on the choruses.

Engrave it upon your heart.

“When E’er You Make a Promise” was written in 1828 by W.W. Shield, long before the founding of Girl Scouts. But we sing it proudly today to honor our Girl Scout Promise.

SCOUTING SONGS

Barges

Out of my window, looking in the night          (C, F, G7)
I can see the barges' flickering light         (C, F, C, G7, C)
Silently flows the river to the sea            (C, F, G7)
And the barges too go silently                 (C, F, C, G7, C)

Barges, I would like to go with you
I would like to sail the ocean blue
Barges, have you treasures in your hold?
Do you fight with pirates, brave and bold?

Out of my window, looking in the night
I can see the barges' flickering light
Starboard shines green and port is glowing red
You can see them flickering far ahead

Barges, I would like to go with you
I would like to sail the ocean blue
Barges, have you treasures in your hold?
Do you fight with pirates, brave and bold?

“Barges” has been a Girl Scout favorite for at least 50 years. Legend tells that it was written by a sick girl, looking out of her window to see the barges on the river below.

Girl Scouts Together

Girl Scouts Together, That is our song, \(\text{C, Am, C, F}\)
Winding the old trails, rocky and long, \(\text{F, Dm, Am, G7}\)
Learning our motto, living our creed: \(\text{C, Am, F, C}\)
Girl Scouts Together, in every good deed. \(\text{F, C, G7, C}\)

Girl Scouts Together, Happy are we;
Friendly to neighbors, far o'er the sea;
Faithful to country, loyal to home;
Known as true Girl Scouts wherever we roam.

While “Girl Scouts Together” by Gladys Goff received only an honorable mention in the 1941 Girl Scout National Song Contest, it has outlived its rivals and remains a favorite worldwide to this day.

   Taking our place where we belong in this world! (D, G, A7)

   We have a choice out in this world.

   In Sisterhood, we stand as one.
   Shoulder to shoulder, Daughter to daughter,
   We give it all we have to give and live it now.

   For we are Girl Scouts growing strong!

Melinda Caroll wrote “Growing Strong,” which became the theme song for the Girl Scouts in the 1990s. She is a lifetime Girl Scout and lives in Hawaii.
Happy Wanderer

I love to go a-wandering,  (A, E7, A)
Along the mountain track,  (A, E7)
And as I go, I love to sing,  (E7, A)
My knapsack on my back.  (D, E7, A)

Chorus:
Val-deri, Val-dera,  (A, E7, A)
Val-deri,  (E7)
Val-dera-ha-ha-ha-ha-ha  (A)
Val-deri, Val-dera.  (E7, A)
My knapsack on my back.  (D, E7, A)  Sing last line of verse sung prior to chorus

I love to wander by the stream
That dances in the sun,
So joyously it calls to me,
"Come! Join my happy song!"

I wave my hat to all I meet,
And they wave back to me,
And blackbirds call so loud and sweet
From ev'ry green wood tree.

High overhead, the skylarks wing,
They never rest at home
But just like me, they love to sing,
As o'er the world we roam.

Oh, may I go a-wandering
Until the day I die!
Oh, may I always laugh and sing,
Beneath God's clear blue sky!

The “Happy Wanderer” was originally written in German by Friedrich-Wilhelm Moeller shortly after World War II for a children’s choir of war orphans. The song was quickly translated into many languages, including English, and is still a favorite today.
On My Honor

Chorus: (sung at the beginning and after verses 2 and 4)
On my honor I will try. (C, F)
There’s a duty to be done and I say, "Aye" (G7, C)
There’s a reason here for a reason above, (Am, F)
My honor is to try and my duty is to love. (G7, C)

1. People don't need to know my name.
   If I do any harm, then I'm to blame.
   When I help another, then I help me,
   If I've opened up my eyes to see...

2. I've tucked away a song or two.
   If you're feeling low, there's one for you.
   When you need a friend, then I will come.
   There are many more where I come from...

Chorus

3. Come with me where a fire burns bright.
   We can even see better in a candle’s light.
   But we find more meaning in a campfire’s glow.
   Than we’d ever learn in a year or so...

4. We've made a promise to always keep.
   And the "day is done" before we sleep.
   We'll be Girl Scouts together, and when we're gone.
   We'll still be trying and singing this song.

Chorus

Add the last time only:
My honor is to try and my duty is to love

“On My Honor” was written in 1981 by Cindy Dash.
Listen closely to the words, as they reflect the true meaning of the Girl Scout Promise

“\textbf{I Am One Voice}” was written in 1990 by Don Eaton. We will sing, first with a soloist, then with two girls, then with all our Trefoil singers, then with the entire Chorus, and then with you all, representing all the Scouts of the world.
Our Cabana Song

1st Verse (all)
'Neath the grand Sierra Madre on a plain in Mexico
Lies our beautiful Cabana where Girl Scouts and Guides go.
Oh come then to see the mountains, the cactus and sunny skies.
Hear the crickets in the evening and see the white moon arise.

Trefoils:
2nd Verse
When you see the warm red roofs you think of hearts that glow with cheer.
And the walls of sturdy stonework stand for friendship so dear.
Each day there is filled with laughter, each ev’ning is filled with song,
And our stay in Our Cabaña gives us mem’ries lifelong

3rd Verse
When we go to Our Cabaña, we shall find ourselves at home;
There’s a greeting smile so friendly and a handshake so warm
So come now to Our Cabana, world friendship to increase
And carry to our homeland international Peace.

1st Verse (Spanish)
En la bella Cuernavaca, en un valle en Mexico,
se encuentra Nuestra Cabaña, un lugar lleno de sol.
Vamos a nuestra Cabana; gozaremos al llegar
De amistad y de alegría y de belleza sin par.

Whose promises were kept,

And we must be
Prepared like them to live,
To give to all,
Both great and small
All we can give!

All we can give!

The World Song was originally written in French, and was first published with English words in 1952, by Gavin Ewart.

Magic

1. When I was young I thought the stars were made for wishing on,
   And every hole deep in a tree must hide a leprechaun;
   Old houses all held secret rooms if one could find the door,
   But who believes in magic anymore?

   CHORUS:
   Magic is the sun that makes a rainbow out of rain;
   Magic keeps the dream alive to try and try again;
   Magic is the love that stays when good friends have to leave;
   I do believe in magic, I believe.

2. When I grew up, the grown-ups said, I'd wake one day to find
   Magic is a childish game I'd have to leave behind.
   Like clothes that would no longer fit, or toys that I'd ignore,
   I'd not believe in magic anymore.

   CHORUS

3. Now my childhood's far behind, I've learned to my surprise
   Magic did not fade, it only wears a new disguise;
   A child, a song, a smile, a friend, the courage to stand tall,
   And love's the greatest magic of them all.

   CHORUS
   (Last line)
   I do believe in magic, for love's the greatest magic
   And I believe in magic, I believe

"Magic" was written by M.A. Moore in 1996 and reflects the magic in all the world around us.

Rainbow Connection

Why are there so many songs about rainbows, (G, Em, C, D) and what's on the other side? (G, Em, C)
Rainbows are visions, but only illusions. (G, Em, C, D)
And rainbows have nothing to hide. (G, Em, C)
So we've been told and some choose to believe it. (C)

Some day we'll find it, the rainbow connection, (C, D, G, Em)
The lovers, the dreamers, and me. (C, D, G)

Who said that every wish will be heard and answered (G, Em, C, D)
When wished on the morning star? (G, Em, C)
Somebody thought of that and someone believed it. (G, Em, C, D)
Look what it's done so far. (G, Em, C)
What's so amazing and keeps us stargazing? (C)
And what do we think we might see? (D7, D)
Some day we'll find it, the rainbow connection, (C, D, G, Em)
The lovers, the dreamers and me. (C, D, G)

All of us under its spell.
We know that it's probably magic.

Have you been half asleep and have you heard voices? (G, Em, C, D)
I've heard them calling my name. (G, Em, C)
Is this the sweet sound that called the young sailors? (G, Em, C, D)
The voice might be one and the same. (G, Em, C)
I've heard it too many times to ignore it. (G, Em, C)
It's something that I'm supposed to be. (D7, D)
Someday we'll find it the rainbow connection, (C, D, G, Em)
the lovers, the dreamers and me. (C, D, G)

Someday we'll find it the rainbow connection, the lovers, the dreamers and me.

And WHAT did I see?
Comin’ for to carry me home.

Tell all my friends I’m comin’ too,
Comin’ for to carry me home.

2nd optional descant
Dominique a’nique a’nique
Over the land he walks along
And sings a happy song
Never asking for reward, he just talks about the Lord

He just talks about the Lord.

“Swing Low, Sweet Chariot” was written by Wallis Willis, a Choctaw Freedman in the old Indian Territory. It was inspired by the Red River, which reminded Willis of the Prophet Elijah and his fiery chariot at the Jordan River. We sing it in tandem with the old spiritual “When the Saints Go Marching In.”
Teach the World to Sing

I'd like to build a world a home and furnish it with love.
Grow apple trees and honey bees and snow white turtle doves.

I'd like to teach the world to sing in perfect harmony.
I'd like to hold it in my arms, and keep it company.
I'd like to see the world for once all standing hand in hand.
And hear them echo through the hills for peace throughout the land.

Trefoils: It's the real thing what the world wants today,
That's the way it'll stay with the real thing.

Chorus continues: I'd like to teach the world to sing in perfect harmony.
A song of peace that echoes on and never goes away.

(Trefoils: That's the song I hear)
I'd like to see the world for once
(Trefoils: Let the world sing today)
all standing hand in hand.
And hear them echo through the hills for peace throughout the land.

I'd like to teach the world to sing, in perfect harmony.
A song of peace that echoes on, and never goes away.

Believe it or not, “Teach the World to Sing” was originally written as a Coca-cola commercial and performed for TV by The New Seekers. After the popularity of the commercial, the group then wrote a full-length version which sold 7 million records.
Up with People

Chorus:
Up, up with people; you meet them wherever you go.
Up, up with people; they’re the best kinda folks to know.
If more people were for people, all people everywhere
There’d be a lot less people to worry about and a lot more people to care

Verse 1:
It happened just this morning, I was walking down the street.
A milkman and a postman, a policeman I did meet.
There in every window and every single door,
I recognized people I’d never noticed before.

Verse 2:
People from the Southland and people from the North,
Like a mighty army, I saw them coming forth.
’Twas a great reunion, befitting of a king.
Then I realized people were more important than things.

Verse 3:
Inside everybody, there’s some bad and there’s some good.
Don’t let anybody start attacking peoplehood.
Love them as they are, and fight for them to be Great men and great women as God meant them to be.

Chorus

“Up with People” is the theme song of an international non-profit educational organization which puts together multi-national casts of young people to travel the world singing and offering service.

   She sailed across the channel too
   And she took with her, the Rickadamdo.

CHORUS:

   She reeled him in; she brought him back,
   She saved his life, and his crew’s too,
   And do you know how?—with the Rickadamdo.

At the outbreak of World War I, Canada was without armed forces. A battalion was financed by Hamilton Gault, who named the regiment after the daughter of the Duke of Connaught. Princess Patricia, the Colonel-in-Chief, designed and made by hand the regimental flag to be presented on that occasion. It is a crimson flag with a circular royal blue centre. In the circle are gold initials V P which stands for Victoria Patricia. The regimental standard became known as the "Ric-A-Dam-Doo". This flag was carried in every regimental action during World War I.

“Whippoorwill” was written by Anne Chapin at the First Girl Scout Training School in Massachusetts in 1921 and has been a favorite ever since. It sings about a small, brown bird of North America that nests on the ground and comes out only at night. It is named for its call, whippoorwill, whippoorwill.
White Coral Bells

White Coral Bells upon a slender stalk; (G, D7, G)
Lilies of the valley deck my garden walk. (G, D7, G)

Oh, don’t you wish that you could hear them ring?
That will happen only when the fairies sing.

HOLIDAY

Do You Hear What I Hear?

Said the night wind to the little lamb,
"Do you see what I see?
Way up in the sky, little lamb,
Do you see what I see?
A star, a star, dancing in the night
With a tail as big as a kite,
With a tail as big as a kite."

(A, E7, A)
(A)
(A, E7, A)
(A)
(F#m, E7, A)
(D, E7, A)
(D, E7, A)

Said the little lamb to the shepherd boy,
"Do you hear what I hear?
Ringing through the sky, shepherd boy,
Do you hear what I hear?
A song, a song high above the trees
With a voice as big as the sea,
With a voice as big as the sea."

Said the shepherd boy to the mighty king,
"Do you know what I know?
In your palace warm, mighty king,
Do you know what I know?
A Child, a Child shivers in the cold--
Let us bring him silver and gold,
Let us bring him silver and gold."

Said the king to the people everywhere,
"Listen to what I say!
Pray for peace, people, everywhere,
Listen to what I say!
The Child, the Child sleeping in the night
He will bring us goodness and light,
He will bring us goodness and light."

"Do You Hear What I Hear" was written in 1962, at the time of the Cuban missile crisis. In fact, the writers of the song, Noel Regney and Gloria Shayne, could not sing their song without tears. The song, asking for peace in the world, went on to become a worldwide hit when recorded by that famous artist, Bing Crosby.
Dreidel Song

1. I have a little dreidel; (D) 2. It has a lovely body (D, A7) 3. My dreidel’s always playful
I made it out of clay. (D, A7) With legs so short and thin It loves to dance and spin.
And when it’s dry and ready (A7) And when it gets all tired, A happy game of dreidel
Then dreidel I shall play! (A7, D) It drops and then I win! Come play, now let’s begin!

Chorus:
Oh - dreidel, dreidel, dreidel, (D) Oh, dreidel, dreidel, dreidel, Oh, dreidel, dreidel, dreidel, Oh, dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
I made it out of clay (D, A7) With legs so short and thin It loves to dance and spin.
And when it’s dry and ready (A7) Oh, dreidel, dreidel, dreidel, Oh, dreidel, dreidel, dreidel, Oh, dreidel, dreidel, dreidel,
Then dreidel I shall play! (A7, D) It drops and then I win! Come play, now let’s begin!

The dreidel is a Hanukkah top with one letter on each side – hey, none, gimel, and shin. Children and adults alike love to spin the top, winning or losing their nuts, raisins, or candies, as they celebrate the great miracle of Hanukkah.

"Feliz Navidad" is a Christmas song written in 1970 by the Puerto Rican singer-songwriter José Feliciano. Its simple Spanish chorus means "Merry Christmas, a prosperous year and happiness." It has become a classic Christmas pop song in the United States, throughout the Spanish-speaking world and internationally.
The Friendly Beasts

1. Jesus, our brother, kind and good
   Was humbly born in a stable rude;
   And the friendly beasts around Him stood,
   Jesus, our brother, kind and good.
   (C, G7, C)
   (C, F, G7, C)
   (C, F, G7, C)
   (C, G7, C)

2. "I," said the donkey, shaggy and brown,
   "I carried His mother up hill and down;
   I carried her safely to Bethlehem town."
   "I," said the donkey, shaggy and brown.

3. "I," said the cow all white and red
   "I gave Him my manger for His bed;
   I gave him my hay to pillow his head."
   "I," said the cow all white and red.

4. "I," said the sheep with curly horn,
   "I gave Him my wool for His blanket warm;
   He wore my coat on Christmas morn."
   "I," said the sheep with curly horn.

5. "I," said the dove from the rafters high,
   Cooed Him to sleep so He should not cry;
   We cooed him to sleep, my mate and I."
   "I," said the dove from the rafters high.

6. Thus every beast by some glad spell,
   In the stable dark was glad to tell
   Of the gift he gave Emmanuel,
   The gift he gave Emmanuel.

As we sing this old Christmas children’s song, “The Friendly Beasts,” remember the animals present at the stable and their gifts to the newborn baby.
Frosty the Snowman

Frosty the Snowman
Was a jolly happy soul
With a corncob pipe and a button nose
And two eyes made out of coal

Frosty the Snowman
Is a fairytale they say
He was made of snow
But the children know
How he came to life one day
there must have been some magic
In that old silk hat they found
For when they placed it on his head
He began to dance around

thumpety thump thump
thumpety thump thump
Look at Frosty go

thumpety thump thump
thumpety thump thump
Over the hills of snow

"Frosty the Snowman" is a popular songwritten by Walter "Jack" Rollins and Steve Nelson, and first recorded by Gene Autry and the Cass County Boys in 1950. The song supposedly takes place in White Plains, New York, or Armonk, New York. Armonk has a parade dedicated to Frosty annually.
I Want a Hippopotamus for Christmas

1. I want a hippopotamus for Christmas
A hippopotamus is all I want
Don't want a doll, no dinky Tinker Toy
I want a hippopotamus to play with and enjoy

I want a hippopotamus for Christmas
I don't think Santa Claus will mind, do you?
He won't have to use our dirty chimney flue
Just bring him through the front door,
that's the easy thing to do

I can see me now on Christmas morning,
creeping down the stairs
Oh what joy and what surprise
when I open up my eyes
to see a hippo hero standing there

I want a hippopotamus for Christmas
Only a hippopotamus will do
No crocodiles, no rhinoceroses
I only like hippopotamuses
And hippopotamuses like me too!

2. I want a hippopotamus for Christmas
A hippopotamus is all I want
Mom says the hippo would eat me up, but then
Teacher says a hippo is a vegetarian

I want a hippopotamus for Christmas
The kind I saw last summer in the zoo
There's lots of room for him in our 2-car garage
I'd feed him there and wash him there and give him his massage

I can see me now on Christmas morning,
creeping down the stairs
Oh what joy and what surprise when I open up my eyes
to see a hippo hero standing there

“I Want a Hippopotamus for Christmas” was written in 1953 for a child singer, Gayla Peevey. It became a hit, and young Miss Peevey was presented with a baby hippo, which she donated to the zoo.
How Many Candles?

How many candles, how many candles,
How many candles do we light?
On our Hanukiah, on our Hanukiah,
The first Hanukah night?
One, one, one, one, one, one
One candle burning, one candle burning
The first Hanukah night.
How many candles, how many candles,
How many candles do we light?
On our Hanukiah, on our Hanukiah
The second Hanukah night
Two, two, two, two, two, two,
Two candles burning, two candles burning
The second Hanukah night.

Repeat for third, fourth, through 8th etc. Hanukah nights

On each of the eight nights of the festival of Hanukah, one more candle is lit on the special Hanukah menorah, known as a Hanukiah. Each candle represents one of the eight days the miraculous oil burned in the temple of Jerusalem. Join us as we count the candles with you.
Huron Carol

Performed with drum only

'Twas in the moon of wintertime when all the birds had fled
That mighty Gitchi Manitou sent angel choirs instead;
Before their light the stars grew dim and wondering hunters heard the hymn,
Jesus your King is born, Jesus is born, in excelsis gloria.

Within a lodge of broken bark the tender babe was found;
A ragged robe of rabbit skin enwrapped his beauty round
But as the hunter braves drew nigh the angel song rang loud and high
Jesus your King is born, Jesus is born, in excelsis gloria.

The earliest moon of wintertime is not so round and fair
As was the ring of glory on the helpless infant there.
The chiefs from far before him knelt with gifts of fox and beaver pelt.
Jesus your King is born, Jesus is born, in excelsis gloria.

O children of the forest free, O sons of Manitou
The holy Child of earth and heaven is born today for you.
Come kneel before the radiant boy who brings you beauty, peace and joy.
Jesus your King is born, Jesus is born, in excelsis gloria.

The “Huron Carol” is the oldest Canadian Christmas hymn. It was written in 1643 in the native Huron language by a French missionary, and tells the story of the Nativity with images familiar to the Huron people.
It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas              (D, G, D)
Ev'rywhere you go                                      (D, G)
take a look in the five-and-ten,                      (G, A7)
Glistening once again                                (A7, D)
With candy canes and silver lanes aglow            (A7, E7, A7)

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas              (D, G, D)
toys in ev'ry store                                    (D, G)
But the prettiest sight to see                        (G, A7)
is the holly that will be                              (D, B7)
On your own front door                                (Em, A7, D)

A pair of hopalong boots and a pistol that shoots     (F#7)
Is the wish of Barney and Ben                         (Bm)
Dolls that will talk and will go for a walk           (E7)
Is the hope of Janice and Jen                         (A7)
And Mom and Dad can hardly wait for school to start again (A7)

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas              (D, G, D)
Ev'rywhere you go                                      (D, G)
there's a tree in the Grand Hotel,                    (G, A7)
One in the park as well                               (A7, D)
the sturdy kind that doesn't mind the snow            (A7, E7, A7)

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas              (D, G, D)
Soon the bells will start                             (D, G)
And the thing that will make them ring                (E7)
Is the carol that you sing                            (D, B7)
Right within your heart                               (Em, A7, D)

"It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas" is a classic Christmas song written in 1951 by Meredith Willson. A popular belief in Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, holds that Willson wrote the song while staying in Yarmouth's Grand Hotel. The song makes reference to a "tree in the Grand Hotel, one in the park as well..."; the park being Frost Park, directly across the road from the Grand Hotel, which still operates in Yarmouth.

Let it Snow!

Oh! the weather outside is frightful (C)
But the fire is so delightful (G7)
And since we've no place to go (F, G7)
Let It Snow! Let It Snow! Let It Snow! (C, G7, C)

It doesn't show signs of stopping
And I brought some corn for popping
The lights are turned way down low
Let It Snow! Let It Snow! Let It Snow!

When we finally kiss goodnight (G)
How I'll hate going out in the storm! (D7, G)
But if you'll really hold me tight (G)
All the way home I'll be warm (G, D7, G, G7)

The fire is slowly dying
And, my dear, we're still goodbying
But as long as you love me so
Let It Snow! Let It Snow! Let It Snow!

This popular winter love story, while sung during the holidays, mentions no holiday. It was written in 1945, on one of the hottest days of summer. We hope you enjoy with us, “Let it Snow.”

A new born King to see, pa rum pum pum pum
Our finest gifts we bring, pa rum pum pum pum

I am a poor boy too, pa rum pum pum pum
I have no gift to bring, pa rum pum pum pum
That's fit to give the King, pa rum pum pum pum,

Shall I play for you, pa rum pum pum pum,
On my drum?

"Rudolph with your nose so bright,  (A)
Won't you guide my sleigh tonight?  (A7, D7)
Then how the reindeer loved him  (G)  (Loved him)

“Silver Bells” was written by Jay Livingston and Ray Evans, inspired by seeing the Salvation Army worker ringing a bell on the city streets. It was first performed in 1950 and remains a favorite to this day.

"We Wish You a Merry Christmas" is a popular secular sixteenth-century English carol. The origin of this Christmas carol lies in the English tradition where wealthy people gave Christmas treats to the carolers on Christmas Eve such as 'figgy puddings.' It is one of the few traditional holiday carols that makes mention of the New Year celebration.
Winter Wonderland

Sleigh bells ring, are you listening? (C)
In the lane, snow is glistening (G. G7)
A beautiful sight, we're happy tonight (G7, F, G7, F)
Walkin' in a winter wonderland (C, G7, C)

Gone away is the bluebird
Here to stay is a new bird
He sings a love song as we go along
Walkin' in a winter wonderland

In the meadow we can build a snowman (E, A, E)
Then pretend that he is Parson Brown (E, A, E)
He'll say, "Are you married?" (G, D7)
We'll say, "No man, (G)
But you can do the job when you're in town." (G, D7, G, G7)

Later on we'll conspire
As we dream by the fire
To face unafraid
The plans that we made
Walkin' in a winter wonderland.

The lyrics to the 1934 holiday favorite, “Winter Wonderland,” were written by Dick Smith. While being treated for tuberculosis, he was inspired by the view of a park covered with snow. And, while this song has become a Christmas classic, recorded by dozens and dozens of artists, there is no mention of any holiday in the song.
